

As a frequent flyer, I beg you never to allow the use of cellular phones while aboard an aircraft. I could not stand to sit and listen to somebody else, or many people, talking while flying. If, as in the events of 9-11-01, we were to be in harms way, people wouldn't hesitate to use their phones. Why give the terrorists a means of communication? The concept is ridiculous and unnecessary.

Carol Whichard
2934 Pinewood Dr.
Napa, Ca. 94558
707-259-1176